Sample Itinerary:

Day 1—Check this out! You may be pleasantly surprised with the variety of attractions and the world –class recognition of our major destination—Chattanooga, TN. Chattanooga is one of the most revitalized cities in America. The New York Times has recognized it as “One of the Top 45 Places To Go In the World”. Fall in Chattanooga is a second-time winner of Outside Magazine’s “Best Town Ever”, and National Geographic Adventure’s “Best Adventure Towns in the U.S.”. Tonight we’re in Renfro Valley, KY as we take in Renfro’s Old Barn Dance. Renfro Valley is known as Kentucky’s Country Music Capital. Now in their 75th year, prepare for a fun evening of classic country, southern gospel, and mountain bluegrass, plus a delicious included buffet dinner.

Day 2—Arrive in Chattanooga and board the Southern Belle Riverboat for an entertainment/lunch cruise, plus the spectacular scenery. We’ll cruise to the Grand Canyon of the Tennessee River to view one of nature’s most beautiful wonders dressed in all of its fall splendor. The three hour cruise takes us to the famous Tennessee River Gorge, also known as the Grand Canyon of the South. Live entertainment, live narration and lunch round out a memorable afternoon. Stay (2) nights at the Chattanooga Choo Choo Hotel. Built in 1908, this historic downtown hotel was once the terminal station for the Southern Railway Line, and is listed on the Historic Hotels of America. The hotel boasts the world’s largest 40 gauge model train display, with 120 locomotives, 1,000 freight cars, 80 passenger cars and 3,000 feet of track.

Day 3—A jam-packed day is full of out of ordinary experiences and amazing natural beauty. The Lookout Mountain Attractions include (3) top rated, world-famous natural attractions that showcase the natural beauty of Lookout Mountain. Trek through Rock City’s massive rock formations and natural wonders and “See Seven States”, tour Ruby Falls, America’s deepest cave and largest underground waterfall and ride the Incline Railway, the world’s steepest passenger railway, a National Historic site and Mechanical Engineering Landmark.

Rock City—1700 feet above sea level, with a 100-foot waterfall that cascades down the mountain, and the famous Swing-A-Long bridge that spans nearly 200 feet.

Incline Railway—“America’s Most Amazing Mile” is the world’s steepest passenger railway. Visit the machine room where the giant gears are put into motion.

Ruby Falls—Named one of the 10 Most Incredible Cave Waterfalls on Earth, it is America’s deepest commercial cave and largest underground waterfall.

Dinner is included!

Day 4—The Blue Ridge Mountains contain the highest mountains in eastern North America. About 125 peaks exceed 5,000 feet. Nestled in the charming mountain village of Blue Ridge, Georgia is the Blue Ridge Scenic Railway and the lush Chattahoochee National Forest. On a colorful 26 mile rail journey experience the brilliant colors along the Toccoa River and national forest. The train stops in Copperhill/McCaysville, one town with two names. The scenic rail journey departs from the historic depot built in 1905. After the train explore dozens of charming specialty shops or head to our local hotel in Blue Ridge, Georgia. Evening at leisure.

Day 5—Head to Asheville, NC and the incredible Biltmore Estate. George Vanderbilt’s 8000 acre, 250 room chateau is as impressive today as it was more than a century ago. Lunch is included upon arrival followed by a tour of the house. We’ll then head to Biltmore Winery for a tour, wine tasting and a visit the gift shop. Continue to Knoxville for our last night.

Day 6—Homeward bound!
